ABOUT ALLEN JOSS

Allen Joss is a family-owned dealership since 1978 with a reputation as extensive as its experience in helping customers, having won the prestigious Ford Dealer of the Year 2017 award again.

Grandfather Barney started in Pretoria in the early 1900's with a bicycle store, then a fuel station and later motor vehicle sales. Allen Joss started in his Dad's business in the 1950's and established Allen Joss in 1978. The third generation joined the business in December 1983, when Dale started as a part-time employee.

The Latest "foundations" began in the Spring of 2003, on 1 September and we keep on evolving!

At Allen Joss we really do believe in being there 'for you, for life.'

We want to be there, meeting your changing motoring needs, at every stage of your life. From the purchase of your first car, to an executive sedan, bakkie or SUV when a family comes along.

At Allen Joss we just don't sell vehicles, but we also help you take care of them. Our dealerships offer a full range of aftersales provisions including fully stocked parts departments and professional vehicle servicing by trained technicians. As multiple awards winners in the Aftersales category, we offer the best service and parts solutions.

- Winners of the CVP 2017 Category B
- Finalist Parts Category C 2017 &
- Finalist Service Category B 2017.

At Allen Joss our staff are fully dedicated, trained and experienced in their fields. They work hard and are committed to serving our customers and providing a service which we believe is better than anyone else can offer. And we never stop looking at how we can do things better and go that extra mile for our customers. We are delighted to welcome new customers to our state-of-the-art showrooms in Pretoria, Gauteng, where our expert sales executives are eager to assist when purchasing a new or used vehicle. If you are undecided on which model would be best suited to you, you can browse our wide range online and contact our dealerships to find out more information.

Contact us today at 012 567 5171 to become part of our family!

AN AWARD-WINNING AFTERSALES COMMITMENT

Allen Joss offer an extensive range of aftersales services designed to meet the highest standards. All carried out by our Ford-trained technicians using only Genuine Ford parts. We also stock a wide range of Parts & Accessories for the entire Ford model range.

BRAND NEW FORD CAR RANGE

Our Allen Joss Ford dealership stocks the latest range of Ford cars, SUVs and bakkies. From the ever-popular Fiesta and Focus, to new options such as the Kuga SUV and sporty Mustang, Focus ST and more. Whatever your needs, our committed sales executives will help you decide on the right Ford for you.
