The ACFE SA is proud to announce that PwC and TransUnion are this year's Platinum Sponsors of the Annual African Fraud Conference and Exhibition. This conference is recognised as the largest gathering of fraud examiners in Africa and the second largest in the world, bringing together more than 1 000 anti-fraud professionals from over 20 countries.

At the 12th Annual ACFE African Conference, presented over three days, numerous speakers and industry experts will deliver presentations on an array of topics pertaining to fraud prevention, detection and investigation. The conference offers an opportunity to build your network and get expert insight into the topic of fraud from fellow professionals and organisations.

During the conference, delegates will be introduced to various companies and other exhibiting professional bodies. Sponsors include the Platinum Sponsors, PwC and TransUnion, and The Award and Gala Dinner sponsor BankservAfrica, and visit exhibitors like BankservAfrica, Consumer Profile Bureau, Cyanre, IDECO, LexisNexis South Africa, and SizweNtsalubaGobodo Grant Thornton Advisory Services (Pty) LTD.

Jaco de Jager, CEO of the ACFE SA, explains: "This conference gives delegates the opportunity to network with fellow fraud examiners; expand their networks; and learn from others to help mitigate the risks at the companies they represent. This is the ideal platform for skills improvement and to grow as both an individual and a professional."
